

READERS' CHOICE TOP 10 Executive Coaches

Each month, Women's Business asks readers for nominations to create a Top 10 list in a particular category. In this issue, we present our region's top executive coaches. Following are the dynamic professionals who provide the top-notch guidance that readers rely on for their personal and professional development.

Jessika Ferm

Principal
J.Ferm

“Over time, Jessika effectively dissected my styles of communication, what works and what doesn't, and shared techniques that I was able to apply successfully almost right away. Most remarkable, however, has been her success in helping me to think differently - to effect significant change in myself. I attribute that as much to her personal style as to her skills as a coach.”
